

Liberation Spring: 75 Years of Peace

Opening May 1st, 2020, Billy Bishop Home and Museum presents Liberation Spring: 75 Years of Peace.

How did we accomplish this peace? Why do we celebrate peace? What does it mean to us today? This exhibit examines the Liberation of the Netherlands on its 75th anniversary as well as the perspectives on peace of local community groups including school children, veterans, recent refugees to Canada and Dutch survivors of the Second World War occupation.

Liberation Spring features the original Telex declaring the Cease Fire of hostilities in the Netherlands, on May 4, 1945, as received by Signals Officer Harold Van Wyck. It also pays tribute to Sergeant Charlie Fisher of the Royal Canadian Army Service Corps who aided in liberating the Dutch people.

What does peace mean to you? Share your own thoughts!

948 3rd Avenue West
Owen Sound, ON N4K 4P6
519-371-0031
billybishop.org

